

Call for Applications Falling Walls Lab Serbia

Falling Walls Lab is an innovative platform and fast format for presenting research projects. Aspiring academics, researchers, entrepreneurs, professionals of all disciplines have 3 minutes to persuade the jury that their idea could be a breakthrough.

Falling Walls Labs take place throughout the world and the winners of each local Lab get to go to the Falling Walls Lab Finale in Berlin on 8 November. The winner of the Falling Walls Lab Serbia will attend it, too.

Coupled with the competition is the Falling Walls Lab Conference on 9 November, where 20 renowned scientists from all parts of the world hold 15-minute lectures, answering the question "Which are the next walls to fall?" Each lecturer gives the answer in his own discipline, presenting the coming breakthrough in Nanotechnology, Medicine, Climatology, Cosmology, Sociology, Linguistics, Informatics, and many other disciplines.

The Falling Walls Lab Serbia is organised by DAAD and Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung, and hosted by KC Grad, where it will take place on 25 September 2016.

Participants receive an exclusive and cost-free workshop on Science Communication before the lab.

Applications can be made through the portal at www.falling-walls.com/lab. The application deadline is 11 September 2016.

The presenter who piques most interest gets to travel to the Berlin FWL Finale and Conference on 8-9 November. The Falling Walls Lab Foundation provides the accommodation and a ticket for the conference. The travel allowance is provided by DAAD.

In order to spread the word of the Falling Walls Lab Serbia, we would greatly appreciate if you could forward our call for applications to students, researchers, professionals within the networks of your institution.

If you have any questions, do not hesitate to contact DAAD Information Centre Belgrade (info@daad.rs) or the Falling Walls Foundation (lab@falling-walls.com)
